View without EVS

View with EVS

Gulfstream's Enhanced Vision System (EVS) uses a specially designed forward-looking camera that projects an infrared real-world image on the pilot's Head-Up Display (HUD). By projecting real-time visual information, EVS greatly improves a pilot's situational awareness.

In fog or on even the darkest of nights, pilots using EVS can clearly see a mountain range, a runway or any aircraft or vehicles on taxiways. Better still, it works seamlessly with other advanced technology in the PlaneView® cockpit to provide a fully integrated visual environment.

The more your pilot can see, the safer you are.

FOLLOW A SAFER PATH

Synthetic Vision-Primary Flight Display is a dramatic enhancement to the Gulfstream PlaneView® II flight displays. It features a three-dimensional color image overlaid with the primary flight display instrument symbology.

Combining previously certified terrain data from Honeywell's Enhanced Ground Proximity Warning System with obstacle data, and using a new state-of-the-art graphics processor, SV-PFD accurately depicts terrain, obstacles, runways and approaches at locations throughout the world.

Using both SV-PFD and the Enhanced Vision System simultaneously provides an unmatched magnitude of pilot situational awareness. Your flight path is always visible, regardless of the conditions outside the cockpit window.
